Congratulations to artists Marianne Harris, Linda LaRochelle Wilson and Josef Ginter, winners of Jurors’ Choice Awards in our 3 Zone Shows!

Northern Zone Jurors’ Choice: Marianne Harris of Red Deer
Signature Category: ‘Refuge in the Garden’

Central Zone Jurors’ Choice: Linda LaRochelle Wilson of Duchess
Signature Category: ‘Tofino Giant’

Southern Zone Jurors’ Choice: Josef Ginter of Brooks,
Masters Category: ‘Peace in the Valley’
As I visited everyone at the three Zone shows this past month, I am reminded of the very core of the ACACA and what it means to me.

I became a member of ACACA in 2012 and in that year, was thrown into preparation of the Southern Zone show in Brooks. It was at the Heritage Inn on Mother’s Day weekend. We had a great turnout, as the hotel also advertised a Mothers’ Day Brunch. This combined two events at the hotel which enhanced the show with more traffic. We, as a host club, were so pleased with ourselves for “pulling this off”. Then, Sage Brush Arts Society hosted again in 2015 and 2016, finally rounding out the Zone Show this year in Bassano, at the Community Centre there, at which, there was a Silent Auction, gift shop, and presentation by Chris Carson of CARFAC. The show, although smaller, was filled with beautiful art from sculptures, fibre art, digital art and paintings.

The Central Zone show was hosted by Cindy Clark and the Bashful Brush at the Canalta Jurassic in Drumheller. It was a wonderful show, complete with Silent Auction, door prize, and the Zone show entries, which included sculptures, paintings, and digital art. Visitors to the show made a day of it, with so much to take in while in Drumheller. There was a lot of “buzz” about the wonderful hat sculpted by one of our youth entries, to the pen and ink sketching on a napkin, complete with coffee stains, titled “Coffee Break”.

“Nothing in art because art is free.”
Wassily Kandinsky

Then, I get to the Northern Zone show which was hosted by the Edmonton Art Club at the Coast Hotel on the west side of Edmonton. Upon walking into the room, I was “blown away” at this room which exploded “ART”, from Sculptures, fibre art, digital art and paintings. There were individual artists’ tables with private sales, a gift shop, silent auction and The Paint Spot had an area where you could purchase art supplies. And, I did! Awards were handed out at the Gala event on Saturday evening, complete with trays of food and drinks. We all mingled and got to meet new artists and reacquaint with others. This show was fabulous and showed just how much more a show can be, complete with the hotel hosting a Mothers’ Day Brunch, which brought in a lot of extra people to both. This was a wonderful showcase and celebration of art.

At each of the Zone shows, we had a Zone meeting and many questions came up with regards to the new regulations and changes to get us into the next 50 years. As was discussed at the meetings, we are bringing in new ideas and with that come a few new rules and regulations. We welcomed your comments and will be revisiting some of changes which came into place. Some seemed great at the time; some didn’t work out so great. So, with some of these “not so great” ideas, we will listen to your comments and see what we can do to improve upon them. We value your input, as we work for you, the artists, and, as we cannot lose sight of who we are and what we promote, we depend on ideas and comments from you, the ARTISTS.

Once again, thank you for entering into the various Zone shows, thank you for your comments at each of the shows. Please come to the Alberta Wide Show from July 3 to 28 at the Western GM Drumheller Art Gallery. Awards, AGM, lunch, critique and release of works is on July 28th. Please come out and be a voice.

“No better way is there to learn to love Nature than to understand Art. It dignifies every flower of the field. And, the boy who sees the thing of beauty which a bird on the wing becomes when transferred to wood or canvas will probably not throw the customary stone.”
Oscar Wilde

Cheers and have a great summer.

Regulations Alberta Wide Show

ACACA ALBERTA WIDE SHOW

Regulations
1. All artwork moving forward from the Zone Shows will be re-juried at the AB Wide Show under a panel of fresh accredited judges.
2. Works not juried into the AB Wide Show are to be picked up by the Host Club designate who is responsible to take the artwork away and ensure the art pieces are delivered back to the artist.
3. Award winners will be contacted to attend the closing ceremonies of the AB Wide Show to receive their award.
4. Pieces juried into the AB Wide Show will hang for the duration of the show.
5. All artwork must be picked up at the closing of the Alberta Wide by the artist or someone designated, on behalf of the artist, to do so. The award winners will be forwarded on to the Alberta Spirit Show.
6. The AB Wide Show host gallery does not handle sales. Any inquiries must be directed to the ACACA Exhibits committee which will contact the artist; it is up to the artist to contact the buyer. The artist will advise the ACACA Exhibits committee if a sale has been made so the ACACA may document the transaction.

Critiques
A critique by an accredited professional will be offered at each of the three Zone Shows and the Alberta Wide Show. Only work by artists in attendance at the critique session will be reviewed, unless otherwise determined by the person performing the critique.

Top of the Show Premier Award
Annually our corporate sponsor will present the award to the top juried artwork by an artist at the AB Wide Show. The award will carry a monetary component provided by the corporate sponsor. The corporate sponsor of this honour for the 2019 Show Season is Canalta Hotels.

“Best of the Best” Alberta Spirit Show
Each year the ACACA show season winners of the Zone Shows and AB Wide Show will hang at the prestigious “Best of the Best” Alberta Spirit Show. The gallery venue is determined at a provincial location annually.

ACACA Permanent Collection
Annually, artists winning the Top of Show corporate award at the ACACA Alberta Wide Show may have the opportunity to have their artwork purchased by the Association for the ACACA’s Permanent Collection. Art purchased for this collection is stored at the provincial archive and is displayed at various times at the Alberta Spirit Show along with that year’s ACACA Alberta Wide Show final winners.
Archivable Collection Criteria
1. The artwork receiving the Top of Show corporate award, may be purchased if the painting is for sale and the price does not exceed budgeted funds.
2. If any artwork exceeds a maximum height or width of 36 inches (94.5 cm), and is selected as a candidate for the ACACA Permanent Collection, the Artist must provide a custom wooden gallery box for storage, due to provincial Archivable storage limitations.
3. If a sculpture is selected as a candidate for the ACACA Permanent Collection, the Artist must provide a custom wooden gallery box for storage, due to provincial Archivable storage limitations.

Special Thanks to Our Sponsors
The Alberta Community Art Clubs Association gratefully acknowledges the ongoing financial support of the Alberta Foundation for the Arts and the sponsorship of CARFAC Alberta.

The fund raising effort of our members through regular casino events has allowed the ACACA to facilitate ongoing success for our visual artists.

ACACA Policy for Abandoned Artwork
The Association reminds members that they must pick up or make arrangements to pick up their artwork when it is released after exhibiting in ACACA sanctioned shows

A piece of artwork is considered abandoned if it has not been claimed within two (2) years after its exhibit date.

As the ACACA has no means to store these works and cannot sell them, it will be at the discretion of the Host Club to either sell them or donate them.

A carried motion by the ACACA Board at the October 28, 2017 Board Meeting allows that the Host Clubs may donate, raffle or enter in a silent auction or dispose of any artwork that has not been claimed within two years after the show in which it was entered.

The Host Club will attempt to contact the artist through their entry contact information to arrange prepaid shipping or pick up prior to the decision to dispose of it in the manner stated above.

Should the artist not wish to have the artwork returned, a signed letter to the Host Club advising that it may dispose of the piece in any manner the Host Club deems fit, must be provided at the time of entry.
Drop Off or Pick Up of Accepted Art at ACACA Events

If an artist cannot drop off or pick up their artwork piece(s) and it will be dropped off or picked up by another artist, a permission slip signed and dated by the artist, with any special additional instructions must accompany the person responsible for dropping off or picking up the artwork.

Happy Birthday Grace!

Grace McFayden celebrated her 100th Birthday on May 14, 2019. Grace first heard about the Alberta Community Art Clubs Association after Medicine Hat hosted a Provincial show in 1976 and quickly became a member. After, talking the members of Oyen’s Studio 9/41 into hosting a show, Grace and Studio 9/41 took part in the first Southern Zone Show and Alberta Wide–75 in 1980. They have had a connection to the ACACA ever since.

Grace became the ACACA president in 1983, afterwards becoming the historian for a number of years. She was also honored with a Life Time Achievement Award, which meant her membership was paid for life (she got her money’s worth). Grace travelled southern Alberta to all the zone shows and the Alberta Wide, also to Edmonton for the Alberta General Meetings (in March). She took Harry Wohlfarth workshops, participated in paint outs, and created many paintings and friendships over the next forty-three years.

Grace lived rural, she lived on the prairies with its big, wide open skies, among her horses and farm land. She created using oils, pastels, pencil crayon, and graphite to show the beauty of the country. Grace used her livestock branding design as her signature on her art work. She found a way to share her paintings with other artist through the ACACA.

Grace found a way to share her paintings with other artists through the ACACA. Grace supported and promoted art in the local area up until her move to the Senior Lodge in Hanna where she was no longer able to participate in shows because of a stroke. In Graces words “she was very proud to be a member of the ACACA and promote Art in rural Alberta”. She still continues to have a love of Art.

I applied my ACACA Lillian Nunn award to 2 watercolour workshops with Julie Strong: Portraiture in November 2018 and Techniques to Improve Problem Areas such as rocks, trees, moving and still waters, clouds and other landscape features in April, 2019.

Julie provides a list of supplies and a handout. She demonstrates from reference photos and various books, circulating the classroom making suggestions and corrections to individuals. Her manner is easy-going, friendly and informative. She knows this medium well.

My level is intermediate. Watercolour is a challenge and will benefit me in plein air sketches. Julie covered values, wet-on wet, laying a wash, dry brush, composition, mixing on the paper rather than on the palette and colour theory. Among the special effects were credit card and brush handle for scraping, salt, tipping the paper, use of hairdryer to achieve transparent washes, brush use and hue combinations.

Registration for the classes was through the Lethbridge Art Club: contact Lorraine Neal (danceswithdogs33@gmail.com 403-380-3878 in Lethbridge). The class was held in the CASA building (also Lethbridge).

My reference books are: Emily Carr Collected, Watercolour for the Serious Beginner, Compendium of Watercolour Techniques, Landscape, various art magazines, and borrowing through the Shortgrass Library system and inter library loan. Supplies were from Delta Drafting, Mona Lisa Art Supplies, Kensington Art Supplies, Brooks Stationers and Swinton’s Art Supplies.

I chose these workshops because they are southern Alberta based, rural rather than urban subject matter, and within a 3 hour commute from Brooks.

I thoroughly recommend these watercolour workshops and others through the Lethbridge Art Club. The attached photos give you an idea of Julie’s skill and diversity as well as my examples.
