Plein air painting sessions

Starting in June on the first Thursday 10 AM to noon, meet us in the Nikka Yuko Garden to enjoy this quiet, visually inspiring Japanese garden in Lethbridge. An annual pass is by far the most economical way if you plan to go there more than once or twice in a year. There are a couple of different passes, so check it out. The pass is good for a year so you can use it for the light festival in December.

Later this summer, we will also visit some other locations in the City to paint/draw. To be announced! Questions?
